INSTRUCTOR BIO

The protective services classes are taught by Michael Jimenez, who started his career as an armed security officer. His desire to serve his community spread across roles in the U.S. Army, multiple police departments, the U.S. Border Patrol and most recently the Federal Air Marshal Service in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Michael has spent over twenty years educating others in topics such as tactical operations, counterterrorism and firearms. After over five million miles flown around the world protecting and teaching others, Michael has landed at the College of Lake County!
