Course Selection and Numbering

Transfer Courses
Courses in the transfer category may lead to an A.A., A.A.T., A.F.A., A.S. or A.E.S. degree and usually may be transferred to a four-year institution to apply toward a bachelor's degree. Transfer Course Numbering: 100-299 Middle Digit: 2, 4 or 6

Career Courses
Courses in the career category may lead to an A.A.S. degree or certificate. Some courses may also apply toward an A.A., A.A.T., A.F.A., A.S. or A.E.S. degree. To find out what courses transfer, consult the Counseling Center and/or contact the four-year institution directly. Career Course Numbering: 100-299 Middle Digit: 1, 3, 5 7 or 9

Developmental Courses
Courses in the developmental category prepare students for college-level courses in the transfer and career categories. They do not in themselves transfer. Developmental Course Numbering: 100-299 Middle Digit: 0

BIOLOGY
Biological & Health Sciences Division, Room C140, (847) 543-2042, www.ccllinois.edu/programs/bio

IMPORTANT INFORMATION Regarding Placement Test for BIO 123 and BIO 161
Students who want to enroll in BIO 123 or BIO 161 and do not have the prerequisite algebra course (MTH 102 or MTH 108) MUST take the CLC College Math Placement Test. The test is given in the Testing Center at the Grayslake Campus, (847) 543-2076, the Lakeshore Campus, (847) 543-2120, and by appointment at the Southlake Campus, (847) 543-6501. Please call the appropriate location for testing times. The use of a calculator is permitted, and one will be provided. Photo ID is required.

CHEMISTRY
Biological & Health Sciences Division, Room C140, (847) 543-2042, www.clcillinois.edu/programs/chm

IMPORTANT INFORMATION Regarding Placement Test for Chemistry
Students who want to enroll in CHM 120 or CHM 121 and do not have the prerequisite algebra course MUST take the CLC College Math Placement test. The test is given in the Testing Center at the Grayslake campus, (847) 543-2076, the Lakeshore Campus, (847) 543-2120 and at the Southlake Campus, (847) 543-6544. Please call the appropriate location for testing times. The use of a calculator is permitted, and one will be provided. Photo ID is required.

Which beginning chemistry course is right for you?
CHM 120 - intended for general education lab science requirement for non-science majors and for the dental hygiene, medical imaging, and registered nursing programs. Basic algebra is a prerequisite.

CHM 121 - intended for chemistry, biology and other science majors. Intermediate algebra is a prerequisite.

CHM 142 - intended for general education lab science requirement for non-science majors and is not intended for students wishing to enter an allied health or pre-professional field. Language proficiency and basic algebra readiness prerequisite.

CHM 140 – same as CHM 142, but without a lab.

CHM 120  Chemical Concepts (3-2)  4 Hours

- CMM 121-045 is a Blended public speaking class in which coursework is covered online but speeches are delivered in class with an audience 4 times throughout the semester at the Grayslake Campus. CMM 121 features training in research, organization and delivery of extemporaneous speeches. Additionally, students of CMM 121 will cover the fundamentals of communication principles, CMM 121 requires active participation in oral and online communication. This course will provide students with the necessary tools to be an effective speaker. In addition to a plethora of online learning materials which will help guide students in how to prepare an engaging and effective speech, students of this section will have access to this instructor’s recorded classes which were recorded during a live classroom lecture of a previous semester. Students who enroll in this course must have access to a working computer with dependable internet service and must be able to attend class meetings on the following Wednesdays during the Fall 2016 semester from 11:30-3:00 p.m.: August 24th, September 14th, October 12th, November 9th, and December 7th.

ENG 104: Individual Topics in Writing & Reading

English 104 is an individualized module course designed to help students focus on and develop their skills in specific areas related to writing and reading. Possible topics include issues related to the writing process, organization, sentence structure and punctuation, reading and vocabulary, as well as issues related to second language writing. Working one-on-one with a writing center tutor, students choose several writing and/or reading issues to concentrate on, work through activities and exercises related to these issues, and write/review three to five writing assignments based on their areas of concern. Students meet with the same tutor for one hour on the same day each week throughout the semester. To complete the module, students must submit a portfolio of their work.

Students wishing to enroll in a module must select the section number that corresponds to the day and time range in which they would be able to attend a one-hour session with their tutor:

Grayslake Campus
Section 900: Morning—Between 9 a.m. and 12 p.m., M-S
Section 901: Afternoon—Between 1 and 4 p.m., M-F
Section 902: Evening—Between 4 and 8 p.m., M-R

Lakeshore Campus
Section 903: Mid-day—Between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., W (or between 9 a.m. and 12 p.m. on S)
Section 904: Evening—Between 4 and 8 p.m., M-R

SELF-REGISTRATION IS NOT PERMITTED. To enroll in one of the sections of English 104, students MUST contact the Grayslake Writing Center at [847] 543-2452. At that time, students will need to choose a specific day and time for their weekly hour-long meetings. Appointment times are available on a first-come, first-served basis, so students should call as soon as possible. For more information or to register for one of the sections, please call the Grayslake Writing Center at [847] 543-2452. Students should also contact the Grayslake Writing Center if they wish to be put on a waitlist for a closed section, or if they wish to enroll in a module after the first week of the semester.

Learning Community with ENG 121

ENG 109-451 and ENG 121-451 are a 16 week Learning Community. To enroll in ENG 109-451, you also must enroll in ENG 121-451. These courses run concurrently: the 109 class is a separate class, though it is a support for the ENG 121 class. Both courses are taught by the same instructor with a common text. The workload and expectations are the same in both of these courses, but you will receive a lot of help to succeed. For registration information, please contact Lamont Barrientos at lbarrientos@clcillinois.edu.

The Pop Star
This themed course will explore the historical and cultural contexts of popular music. We will examine themes in the music and personas of stars ranging from Madonna to Lady Gaga, Elvi Presley to Eminem, Prince to Kanye West, and more. Through critical reading, writing, and research, students will explore the roots and variety of social factors that give rise to this brand of popular culture.

Mindfulness
Mindfulness has its origins in Buddhist meditation. It entails giving attention to the moment, nurturing greater awareness, acceptance and clarity. In this class we will engage in a variety of meditation techniques as well as discuss the history, development, myths and therapeutic value of mindfulness. While primarily a class in composition, the readings, research and writing for this section will focus on the topic of mindfulness. This course was developed with support from an International Curriculum Development Grant for East Asian Studies.

Detective Fiction
How did the redheaded wife get away with brazen murder and her dead husbandís $50 million? In this themed composition course, we will focus on the detective world as depicted through literature, film and television, and we will delve into this popular art form. By writing a variety of essays, you will probe the many facets that connect the detective genre to real life. If you would like to know more about what makes the killer and detective tick as you fulfill English 121, this course is for you.

Learning Community with ENG 109
ENG 121-451 and ENG 109-451 are a 16 week Learning Community. To enroll in ENG 121-451, you also must enroll in ENG 109-451. These courses run concurrently; the 109 class is a separate class, though it is a support for the ENG 121 class. Both courses are taught by the same instructor with a common text. The workload and expectations are the same in both of these courses, but you will receive a lot of help to succeed. For registration information, please contact Lamont Barrientos at lbarrientos@clcillinois.edu.

Science Fiction
In this course we will examine science fiction literature and film. Through critical thinking, analysis and argument we’ll uncover the historical, social, political and philosophical influences and discover how this complex genre enables the writer/creator to explore issues and concerns in ways not possible in other forms of fiction.

The Nurture Effect—Trending Books (1 hour)
What if we had the ability to reduce and prevent violence, drug abuse, poverty, mental illness and criminal behavior? Utilizing Anthony Biglan’s new book, The Nurture Effect: How the Science of Human Behavior Can Improve Our Lives and Our World, this course will investigate the evolution of behavioral science, how it is changing our lives, and how nurturing environments can increase well-being in almost all areas of society — from early childhood education to social services to corporate practices. Students will explore evidence-based interventions that can prevent many of these afflictions on people and society. If you are interested in creating a better world, participate in this Trending Books course. Counselors, therapists, administrators, and students from all disciplines will benefit from this course.

HUS 299 Special Topics in Human Services (Variable) 1-3 Hours
Prerequisite: College Reading and Writing Readiness

Understanding Co-Occurring Disorders (1 hour)
How can we help people who have co-occurring substance use and mental disorders? Guidelines for assessment and treatment planning for the most common mental disorders that co-occur with substance use disorders — personality disorders, depressive disorders, anxiety disorders, psychotic disorders and attention deficit hyperactivity disorders — will be reviewed utilizing the DSM 5. Keys to effective treatment of clients with co-occurring disorders will be presented and case studies will be used to understand differential assessment and treatment planning. Addiction counselors, therapists, and students will benefit from this course.

Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Training (1 hour)
This course is the state-certified Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training provided to law enforcement officers throughout Illinois. Students of this course will receive intensive training on dealing with individuals in the community who have a mental illness or other behavioral disability. Students will learn how to identify signs and symptoms of mental illness, to de-escalate situations involving individuals who appear to have a mental illness, and to connect people in crisis to treatment. Upon successful completion of this course, students will receive a certificate for the CIT Training program. This course is appropriate for law enforcement personnel and students and professionals in human services, social work, criminal justice, psychology, counseling, and other related fields.

Supreme Court Cases
Students will begin to "think like a lawyer" by applying the critical thinking process to such cases to identify, among other things, the issues before the Court, the Court’s holdings and its reasoning, and to anticipate potential concurrences and dissents, as well as future hypothetical cases that may be exempt from the Court’s ruling because of distinguishing facts. This is an ideal class for students interested in a career as a paralegal or in law/law enforcement.

Final Exam Week is December 10-16, 2016. Your schedule may vary during final exam week. Your specific final exam schedule will be available in your Student Center upon registration. Please note that the official end date of the Fall 2016 semester is December 16, 2016.
The Math Placement Test is given on a walk-in basis in the Testing Centers at the Grayslake, Lakeshore and Southlake campuses. There is no charge for the test. For testing schedule information, call the Testing Center at the Grayslake campus at (847) 543-2076, the Lakeshore Campus at (847) 543-2120, or the Southlake Campus at (847) 543-6544. Photo I.D. is required.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION Regarding Mathematics Modules - MTH 101

MTH 101 is available in a series of 1-credit hour modules. These are offered for students who are self-motivated and capable of studying on their own. The module format is not appropriate for all students, so interested persons should check with the Mathematics department to see if the module format is suitable for them. Students must begin by enrolling for the first module in the course. Students who are ready for a higher-level module will be recommended for placement by an instructor. The student can enroll in subsequent modules one at a time after completion of the first module. A student cannot attempt more than one module at a time. The series of topics covered in the modules is equal in content to the course offered in the classroom format when all modules in the course have been successfully completed. Persons enrolled in the modules establish individual schedules with the instructional staff in the Mathematics Center of the Learning Assistance Center at the Grayslake campus, the Lakeshore Campus or the Southlake Campus. While the pace at which students work is variable, they are expected to finish the module in a semester. Attendance is required and students may be withdrawn if their attendance is not regular.

Persons enrolling in the modules must attend one of the following orientation sessions in the Mathematics Center in the Learning Resource Center on the Grayslake campus or at the Lakeshore and Southlake Campuses:

- Grayslake Campus
  - First or second day of semester at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.

- Lakeshore & Southlake campuses
  - To schedule an orientation session for Lakeshore Campus (847) 543-2121 or Southlake Campus (847) 543-6542 please call to set up an individual appointment.

Students who desire to enroll in a module after the start of the semester need to contact the instructor to obtain permission to do so. This can be done by calling the Engineering, Mathematics and Physical Sciences office at (847) 543-2044 or the Mathematics Center at (847) 543-2449.

Further information about the modules can be obtained through the Engineering, Mathematics and Physical Sciences division office at (847) 543-2044, the Mathematics Center at (847) 543-2449, the Lakeshore Campus at (847) 543-2121, the Southlake Campus at (847) 543-6542, or on the web at www.clcillinois.edu/mathcenter.

Final Exam Week is December 10-16, 2016. Your schedule may vary during final exam week. Your specific final exam schedule will be available in your Student Center upon registration. Please note that the official end date of the Fall 2016 semester is December 16, 2016.
MTH 101
Elementary Concepts of Mathematics (Variable)
1-4 Hours

Prerequisite: Score of 34 or higher on the arithmetic portion of the Math Placement Test. A student who scores below 34 on the arithmetic portion of the Math Placement Test should meet with a counselor to discuss options.

Important Information

During the first week of classes, your instructor will call you to arrange a mutually convenient time for lessons. Students who register for 1 credit hour receive 30 minutes of instruction per week. Lesson arrangements are based on availability of staff and students and cannot be guaranteed.

Private Music Lessons

Students who do not desire credit for private music lessons should register to AUDIT the class. This can be processed by calling the office of Admissions (847) 543-2061 after you have successfully registered.

Existentialism
This course will focus on the influential philosophical movement from the 19th and 20th century known as existentialism. The existentialist movement was a reaction to the philosophical, religious, and scientific understandings of the world that had dominated thinking in the Western world for many centuries. As such, existentialism challenges old certainties and seeks to question the status quo. It is an exciting philosophical movement that ventures out bravely into a world that has been turned upside down, a world which no longer has a map to guide you. This is a course for hearty souls — take it if you dare.

Philosophy in The Truman Show
This course will focus around the film The Truman Show (1998, starring Jim Carrey) in which a man discovers that his entire life is a T.V. show. This deeply philosophical and entertaining film explores how self-knowledge can give a person power to live intelligently in the world. Philosophy is about understanding yourself so you can best navigate the world in which you live. That is true power. As a model of how to live in the world with philosophical power, The Truman Show offers insights into many philosophical topics such as “What is happiness?” “What is the best form of government?” “What is the meaning of life” “Does God exist?” “Can one be an authentic person in a media-driven society?” “Can we tell the difference between dreams and reality?” “What is it to be moral?” “Does capitalism inherently exploit people?”

Philosophy and Yoga
In this course we will use the ancient practice of Yoga as the basis for our investigation of Philosophy. Along with reading and writing, this course will include the PHYSICAL practice of yoga. This will involve learning and practicing techniques of breathing, movement and meditation. We will not be sitting in chairs. Yoga is complete philosophical system that incorporates the philosophical mind, body, movement and breath. This course will require an active mind and body.

African American Experience (3 hours)
From Trayvon Martin and Eric Garner to the Black Lives Matter Movement, the experiences of African Americans in U.S. society have been central to our national dialogue about race relations during the Obama era. This course uses a sociological perspective to examine the social, economic, and political status of the African American community, as well as its interactions and experiences within the broader society. Students will explore topics including, but not limited to, poverty and joblessness, policing and criminal justice, schooling, LGBTQ rights, and the continuing struggle for racial equality and social justice.
