Expenses

Tuition is $436.00 per credit hour plus fees of $22 per credit hour, totaling $458.00 per credit hour. Note: The Board of Trustees reserves the right to change tuition and fees without notice.

CLC does not offer on-campus housing or dorms. Our office can assist you with locating housing options such as apartments or extended stay hotels. It is your responsibility to make the final arrangements.

Financial assistance is not available.

Estimated annual expenses for Form I-20:

Tuition and college fees (for 24 credits; full academic year)	$ 10,992
Living Expenses (off-campus)	$ 8,680
Books and Supplies	$ 1,596
Medical Insurance	$ 1,200
TOTAL	$ 22,468

Tuition and fees are due upon enrollment each semester. We offer a payment plan that enables students to spread the payments over the course of the semester. The college accepts cash, checks, American Express, Visa, MasterCard, and Discover credit cards.

All international students are required to enroll in CLC's international student insurance policy.

Application Checklist

- ❑ International Student Application. Student applicant must be at least 17 years old. It must be signed and dated by the student applicant.
- ❑ Official English-translated diploma or certificate to show proof of successful completion of high school; or secondary exam certificate results.
- ❑ Official bank letter or statement from the applicant's or sponsor's bank verifying at least $22,468 U.S. dollars (equivalent). Letter/statement must be written on official letterhead, including:
 - ✓ Date (current within 6 months)
 - ✓ Account holder's name

- ❑ Copy of passport which verifies applicant's name, date of birth and photo

English Proficiency is not Required

Since we offer an English Language Instruction program, proof of English proficiency is not required. An English placement test is given at CLC once the applicant arrives to determine placement in the English Language Instruction program or college-level classes.

NOTE: CLC accepts TOEFL OR IELTS scores as proof of language proficiency for placement in college level classes:

TOEFL: 71 or above – IBT, internet-based

OR

IELTS: 6.0 or above – Academic Format

Orientation

All new international students are required to attend the New International Student Orientation held the week before classes begin each semester. This two-day program includes important information about the college and community, health care, adjusting to the American culture and maintaining F-1 visa status.

Check-in Appointment

As soon as incoming students receive their visa, they are required to schedule a check-in appointment with the International Student Advisor. Please make sure to constantly check your e-mail for updates and important information coming from the College of Lake County.

Guaranteed Transfer Admission Programs

The College of Lake County now offers Guaranteed Transfer Admission Programs to provide students a seamless transfer to earn their bachelor's degrees! We have partnered with several colleges and universities. Check them out at the following website: Guaranteed Transfer Admission Programs
